

Deposit Conditions

These Deposit Conditions apply when you open and maintain a Deposit with us, InsingerGilissen Bankiers N.V.

GENERAL AGREEMENTS

1. Definitions

In this chapter, we make use of certain definitions which we have designated with an uppercase letter. These definitions are explained in the General Terms And Conditions of InsingerGilissen Bankiers N.V. We define what we mean by the new definitions being used in this chapter below.

Deposit

An amount that you keep with us in respect to which we have reached agreements on the size of the amount, the period that you keep the amount with us and the interest that you receive from us on that amount during the agreed upon period.

Deposit Conditions

These terms and conditions.

AGREEMENTS ON OPENING AND TERM

2. Opening

1. You can ask to open a Deposit with us for you. We will then make agreements with you on the amount, the term and the interest percentage for the calculation of the interest that you receive on the deposit. You can open and maintain multiple Deposits with us. The agreed upon term, the agreed upon amount and the agreed upon interest percentage apply for each Deposit.
2. To open a Deposit, you must have a Money Account with us. If you have multiple Money Accounts with us, you must let us know to which Money Account the Deposit to be opened corresponds. We will deduct the amount to be deposited from the Money Account to which the Deposit corresponds.
3. The Deposit will be under the same name as the Money Account to which that Deposit corresponds.
4. You will receive a notification from us confirming the amount placed in the Deposit, the corresponding agreed upon interest percentage and the term as soon as we complete administrative processing of your Deposit. You will receive this confirmation on Mijn InsingerGilissen. You can ask us to provide the confirmation by another means. We will charge you additional costs for this, unless we have made other arrangements about this with you.
5. If you do not agree with the confirmation of the Deposit, you must inform us of that within one Working Day.
6. We can set limits on the possibilities of opening a Deposit. The limitations can relate to the minimum or maximum amount, the minimum or maximum term and the currency of a Deposit. These limitations can change from time to time, but changes do not apply for a current Deposit. You can ask us any time what the limitations are.

7. We can always refuse to open a Deposit.
8. Without our written permission, you cannot transfer your rights arising from a Deposit to another person.

3. Interest

1. The first day of the term of the Deposit counts towards the calculation of the interest, but the last day (on which the deposit ends) does not. For the calculation of interest, for each month, the actual number of days, and for each year, 365 days will be counted. What does this mean?

Suppose that you have placed an amount of €100,000 on 1 January 2017 in a Deposit with us at an interest rate of 2.5% and the deposit ends on 31 March 2017. For the calculation of interest, for each month, the actual number of days, and for each year, 365 days will be counted. The interest that you receive from us on the Deposit will be calculated as follows (all amounts are rounded off to two decimal places):

January 2017: $2.5\% * [31/365] * 100,000 = € 212.33$

February 2017: $2.5\% * [28/365] * 100,000 = € 191.78$

March 2017: $2.5\% * [30/365] * 100,000 = € 205.48$ (31 March is the end date and does not count towards the interest calculation)

On 31 March 2017, you will then receive € 609.59

2. The interest that you receive on the Deposit will be credited to the Money Account that corresponds to the Deposit at the end of the duration of the relevant Deposit. If the duration of a Deposit is longer than twelve months, you will receive the interest (each time) after twelve months have elapsed after the Deposit has begun or after the previous payment of the interest is made.
3. During the agreed upon duration of a Deposit, the agreed upon interest percentage that relates to that deposit cannot be changed.

4. End of the term

1. The Deposit ends automatically on the last day of the term agreed upon at the opening of the Deposit. A Deposit always ends on a Working Day. If the end date that corresponds to an agreed upon term does not fall on a Working Day, the term will be extended until the next Working Day.
2. The interest that you receive on the Deposit will be credited to the Money Account that corresponds to the Deposit at the end of the duration of the relevant Deposit.

Deposit Conditions

3. A Deposit also ends if it is (prematurely) terminated during the agreed upon term. Article 5 then applies.
4. If the Money Account that corresponds to the Deposit is closed (by you or by us), the Deposit will be terminated. Article 5 then applies.
5. Termination of a Deposit
 1. If a Deposit is terminated before the end of the agreed upon term, the agreed upon interest on the Deposit will be calculated until the day that the Deposit is terminated and credited to the Money Account that corresponds to the Deposit.
 2. On the day that the Deposit is terminated, the deposit amount will be credited to the Money Account that corresponds to the Deposit.
 3. A Deposit can only be terminated on a Working Day.
 4. If you act in conflict with the Conditions of Deposit or the General Terms and Conditions of the InsingerGilissen Bankiers N.V. or any obligation towards us, we will have the right to terminate a Deposit. You will then owe us remuneration for the premature termination. Paragraph 5 then applies.
 5. If a Deposit is terminated, you will owe us remuneration for the premature termination. This remuneration will be calculated as follows:
 - a. The amount of time earlier that the Deposit is terminated than the agreed upon duration will be determined in terms of the number of months, in which a portion of a month will be considered to be a full month ('Remaining Months').
 - b. The current interest percentage that we apply if you were to agree to a new Deposit with us on the termination date equal to the amount of the terminated Deposit with a term equal to the Remaining Months ('Current Interest Percentage') will be determined. If we do not offer a Deposit with a term equal to the Remaining Months, to determine the Current Interest Percentage, we will base the determination on a term that we do offer and that is longer than the Remaining Months but that is as close as possible to the Remaining Months.
 - c. The difference between the Current Interest Percentage and the interest percentage agreed upon for the terminated Deposit will be calculated (the 'Calculation Percentage'). The Calculation Percentage will total at least 0.5%
 - d. The remuneration for the early termination will then total: The amount of the terminated Deposit multiplied by the Calculation Percentage multiplied by the Remaining Months divided by twelve.

As a result of this calculation, it is possible that the remuneration that you owe due to the termination of the Deposit will be higher than the interest amount that you - will receive for the terminated Deposit. The remuneration that you owe will be deducted from the Money Account that corresponds to the terminated Deposit.

6. You will not be charged the remuneration specified in paragraph 5 for the early termination if you or an account holder with whom you have a joint account that corresponds to the Deposit dies during the term of a Deposit and if the Deposit is terminated within twelve months after death.

6. Changes to the Conditions

1. We may change our Deposit Conditions, for example due to changed legislation and regulations or a review of our policies. In any event, we will inform you 30 days before the change takes effect, unless we have agreed some other period of time with you. We will notify you by digital means wherever possible, for example via Mijn InsingerGilissen, via our Website or by email, but we may also choose to notify you in writing.
2. What if you disagree with the change(s)? In that case, you can terminate our relationship in whole or in part. Please let us know that in writing before the change comes into force.
3. If we have changed our Deposit Conditions and placed them on our Website, the adjusted conditions will be applied immediately to a Deposit for which the term commences after the publication on the Website. In this case, the 30-day period in paragraph 1 does not apply.
