

Complaints procedure

Do You Have a Complaint?

We at InsingerGilissen are committed to providing you with the best possible service. However, should we not live up to your expectations, you can file a complaint free of charge.

How to File a Complaint

To handle your complaint properly, we ask you to submit your complaint by letter or e-mail. Please include the following information:

- Your name, address, telephone number and account number
- A detailed description of your complaint
- Your request or suggestion
- Copies of relevant documents/attachments

Please address your complaint to:

InsingerGilissen Bankiers N.V.
Attn.: Legal advice
Herengracht 537
1017 BV AMSTERDAM
The Netherlands

or by e-mail: Info@InsingerGilissen.nl

Procedure

We will make every effort to resolve the matter as soon as possible.

1. We will send you acknowledgment of receipt within five business days of receiving your complaint.
2. We will send you a response as soon as possible, but at any rate within four weeks.
3. In our response we will state whether or not we agree with you (in part) and suggest which steps to take. If we cannot resolve the matter within four weeks, we will notify you, stating the reasons and when to expect a response.
4. Occasionally we will not handle complaints, for instance if more than a year has expired between the point when you learned or could have learned about the matter and the date when you filed your complaint. In that case we will also notify you.

Follow-Up

If you are dissatisfied with how we handled the matter, you may contact KiFID within three months after our response.

The Financial Services Complaints Board or KiFID is an independent institute that reviews complaints. Alternatively, you can start proceedings against us with the Amsterdam Court. In that case you do not have to file a complaint with KiFID first.

Address Kifid:

Klachteninstituut Financiële Dienstverlening (KiFID)
PO Box 93257
2509 AG THE HAGUE
The Netherlands
